

The age old mode of transport is still popular in Vakarai

Transport services back to normal

Re-construction of a house in progress

Vakarai re-visited

Residents waiting to receive their quota of rations from the Security Forces welfare outlet

Safety of civilians comes first

Fisherfolk now do not have to pay kappan to Tigers any more

Roadways were being done up

Brickmakers will now find a ready market outside Vakarai

Women patients outside a dispensary

... and these children are fortunate to smile

Fishmongers are now free to gather at the lagoon till the fishermen return with their catch

Students make religious observances at the morning assembly

Determined to pursue better future, these children attend evening classes

Newly set-up CTB depot at Vakarai

