

The finalists featured on this page will vie for the Miss Universe Sri Lanka crown tonight at the Shangri La.

After weeks of auditions - there were many mini pageant since March, namely, Miss Personality, Best head of hair, Miss Talent at a Cultural Night and Miss Photogenic.

It is the partners like Amante – leading intimate wear brand, the main sponsor, Glow and Titanite brand of hand bags, official TV & digital media partners who are making this evening happen.

Sunday Observer Explorer and ANCL are the print media partners.

The evening is expected to have quite a number of rounds of the girls in amante swimwear- where all the girls will be attired in gold swimsuits. This will be a spectacular sight.

The evening's programme is expected to have the 33 contestants in their evening gowns too.

A sumptuous buffet is expected to be dished out by Shangri La, Colombo.

The winners are billed to get attractive prizes.

The one who wins the crown tonight will represent Sri Lanka at the international Miss Universe 2025 to be held on November 21, in Thailand.
