

SWAN LAKE BALLET & FASHIONS RUSSIAN

The highlight of the evening celebrating the Anniversary of the Russian House in Colombo was an exclusive fashion show titled “Layers of Russian Elegance” at the Cultural Section of the Russian Embassy in Sri Lanka on June, 20.

“Layers of Russian Elegance” was a collection, exclusively designed and presented for the occasion by three talented dress designers Natharlea Liyanage, Shavindi Wijesundera and Pubudu Lavanya who were inspired by Russian culture. A spectacular performance, almost like taking a brief peek to the famous swan lake ballet, was performed by the Russian School of Ballet to the soothing sounds of the Russian school of Music.

Invitees were treated to exactly what the title denoted “Layers of Russian Elegance” at this well attended event that included the Minister of Cultural Affairs, Sri Lanka, Ambassadors of Diplomatic Missions and Fashion enthusiasts.

The designers skillfully laid the frills, from the long skirts to short shorts, to bring forth the serenity and the grace that subtly emerged from the fashionable clothes presented, worked in soft pastels.
